Workshop Program: tinyurl.com/CARConferenceProgram

CAR provides a regular venue for exchange of ideas and presentation of work-in-progress on ancient rhetoric and its reception. We aim to build a sense of community among scholars interested in ancient rhetoric broadly construed. We welcome scholars at all levels, including early career and graduate students, who are using comparative or applied perspectives and those working on the reception of ancient rhetoric. To learn more about CAR and its organizers, please visit our website at scholar.harvard.edu/colloquiumforancientrhetoric.
